E-Verify

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires employers to verify the citizenship, or authorization to work in the United States, on all individuals since November 6, 1986. Documentation is required no later than three days from employment commencement. It is the employee's responsibility to assure the Human Resources Division receives the appropriate documentation.

The City uses E-Verify to validate the identity and employment eligibility of all persons hired to work for the City of South Padre Island. E-Verify compares information from an employee's Form I-9 to data from U.S Department of Homeland Security and Social Security Administration records to confirm employment eligibility.

Certification

I hereby certify that answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and agree that if employed, any misrepresentation, falsification or omissions of facts thereon shall justify my dismissal.

I hereby authorize the City of South Padre Island to fully investigate my record and work qualifications either before or after my employment by the City of South Padre Island and to facilitate such investigation, I also hereby authorize any persons, office, agency or source, having information and knowledge about my personal, employment, military, educational, driving record, criminal, credit or financial history; prior work related injury information, physical screening, drug screening and other related matters as may be necessary in arriving at an employment decision to furnish and release such information to the City of South Padre Island. I hereby release employers, schools, agencies, or persons from all liability in responding to inquiries in connection with my application.

I understand that additional testing of job-related skills and drug screening may be required prior to employment. After a contingent job offer of employment, and prior to reporting to work. Depending on the needs of the job, I may be required to be examined by a medical professional designated by the City to determine my ability to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation.

In submitting this application, I understand that it becomes the property of the City of South Padre Island and will not be returned or altered by the City staff. I hereby understand and acknowledge that, any employment relationship with the City is of an "at will" nature, which means any employee may be removed by the City Manager at any time in accordance with applicable law and policies.

Resumes can be attached to the application form for additional information but cannot be substituted for the City Application form. The application must be completed in full.

An applicant is an individual who fully completes an employment application for a position that is currently open, and who meets the qualifications for the position. If your application does not meet the definition of an applicant it will not be considered.

The City will not accept applications for employment unless in response to a posted position.

The City of South Padre Island is an equal opportunity employer. The City strives to comply with state and federal laws regarding discrimination based on race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status or political affiliation. In addition, the City of South Padre Island complies with all other state and local laws prohibiting discrimination in those areas where such laws apply. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions of a job.

Any employee or applicant for employment who perceives that he/she has been treated discriminatorily on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability, or veteran status should consult with or file a complaint with the Human Resources Manager at (956) 761-6456.
