City of South Padre Island celebrates National Tourism Week

South Padre Island, TX, May 1, 2019: The South Padre Island Convention & Visitors Bureau invites you to the annual South Padre Island Tourist Celebration as part of the National Travel & Tourism Week, May 5 – 13.

The Visitors Center will be hosting their annual picnic on Wednesday, May 8, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., located at 610 Padre Boulevard.

“This week across the nation we recognize the importance of tourism as an economic engine in our communities,” said Ed Caum, Convention and Visitor Bureau director. “This is a chance for the Convention Centre to thank the community and our hospitality partners for supporting our operations here on South Padre Island. Our team will continue to bring you great events, hotel bookings and foot traffic on the Island so we may continue growing our economy and local business opportunities.”

National Travel and Tourism Week is an annual tradition for the United States travel community. It is a time when travel and tourism professionals across the country unite to celebrate the value travel holds for our economy, businesses and personal well-being.

Please come join us to celebrate with music and refreshments and to tour the recent renovations to the Visitors Center.
